

PROGRAM

Registration	1.15
Opening remarks	1.30
5 things to consider before embarking on an audit	1.40
You can do it! Example of a trainee audit	2.00
What data do we collect? What audits do we do?	2.20
Brainstorming exercise - come up with your own audit concept	2.40
Afternoon tea	3.00
How to do an audit	3.30
Data is everywhere	4.00
Audit vs research. Can you publish an audit?	4.20
Brainstorming follow up - pitch your audit concept	4.30
Q&A	4.45

REGISTRATION:

YOU MUST REGISTER TO ATTEND

To register, fill in and send attached registration form to HNELHD-
MESOPsych@hnehealth.nsw.gov.au

HNET TRAINEES:

FULLY SUBSIDISED

NON-HNE TRAINEES:

$390

THE CLINICAL AUDIT.

A REALLY DOABLE AND USEFUL PROJECT

Wednesday, 31st July 2019
Meeting Room 4015, MHA Building
Mater Hospital

WE BELIEVE THAT IN ATTENDING
AND PARTICIPATING IN THIS WORKSHOP YOU WILL:

- Understand what a clinical audit is and the key steps to undertake one.
- Be convinced that a clinical audit is a useful scholarly project to do and one that has a good chance of success.
- Walk away with an idea for a clinical audit and understand the next steps you need to take to achieve this project.

KEY
PRESENTER:

DR ANAND
SWAMY

PROGRAM

1.30

Opening remarks

Dr Agatha Conrad, Research Manager MH-READ

Dr Anthony Llewellyn, Scholarly Project Coordinator, HNET

1.40

5 things to consider before embarking on an audit

Dr Anthony Llewellyn, Scholarly Project Coordinator, HNET

2.00

You can do it! Example of a trainee audit

Dr Sarah Vanniasingham, Advanced Psychiatry Trainee, HNET

2.20

What data do we collect? What audits do we do?

Keiryn Miller, Clinical Information Manager, HNE Mental Health

Casey Clarke, Performance Analyst, HNE Mental Health

2.40

Brain storming exercise - Come up with your own audit concept

3.00

Afternoon Tea

3.30

How to do an audit

Dr Anand Swamy, Staff Specialist Hunter Valley Mental Health Service, HNET

4.00

Data is everywhere

Dr Rahul Gupta, Clinical Lead NMHEC-RAP Telepsychiatry project, HNET

Dr Anand Swamy, Staff Specialist Hunter Valley Mental Health Service, HNET

4.20

Audit versus research. Can you publish an audit?

Dr Agatha Conrad, Research Manager MH-READ

4.30

Brainstorming follow up - pitch your audit concept

4.45

Q&A session