THE PERFECT WORK-LIFE BALANCE

EMERGENCY MEDICINE

What we can offer you.....why choose one speciality when you can choose them all!

Where you'll be working

You will be working in our dynamic Emergency Network 4 sites which include: John Hunter Hospital, Maitland Hospital, Calvary Mater Newcastle, Tamworth Rural Referral Hospital. These sites offer fantastic metropolitan and rural experiences in Emergency Medicine as an Unaccredited Emergency Medicine Trainee where you can progress to complete speciality terms after joining our Emergency Medicine College (ACEM).

What you'll be doing

The primary purpose of an Unaccredited Trainee in Emergency Medicine is to provide high quality medical care under appropriate supervision to undifferentiated patients presenting to the Emergency Department.

Unaccredited Emergency Medicine Trainees work under a level of supervision according to their competence in the following activities; Communicating assessment and management decisions to other staff involved in the patient's care. Communicating with the patient / family regarding the patient's condition and management plans. Coordinating diagnostic tests and consultations with other medical specialists. Arranging the patient discharge process and liaising with local medical officers and community based care modalities for optimal post discharge care.

What we can provide to you

As an Unaccredited Trainee you have the ability to complete the Emergency Medicine Certificate (6 months) and Emergency Medicine Diploma (12 months) and the new Emergency Medicine Advanced Diploma (18months) under ACEM. Our District also offers an exceptional Hospital Skills Program and Work Based Assessment Program.
